2. Submit a brief narrative summary of up to two type-written pages. The statement should describe the nominee's AmeriCorps community service activities, how the nominee embodies the characteristics set forth in the criteria, or explain how the nominee's activities address the community's serious social problems. Because the judges will utilize the criteria in the review process, please be sure that you address the criteria related to the appropriate award category.

For the Continued Commitment Award, describe the activities in which the AmeriCorps Alum has been engaged since completing his/her term of service, which merits consideration for this award as described in the criteria.

3. Submit two letters of Recommendation that support the nomination. References should be persons familiar with the nominee's AmeriCorps and/or post-AmeriCorps community service activities for which the nomination is made and should not include the nominee. Recommendation letters must come from those with first hand knowledge of the member's service, e.g. program directors, site supervisors, members or recipients of service. One of the recommendation letters may come from the nominator IF the nominator has first hand knowledge of the member's service.

4. Make the case by including supplementary materials along with the nomination (optional). Up to 5 additional pages of supplementary material may be included along with the nomination. Although it is entirely optional, accompanying materials should help to capture the outstanding contributions of the nominee during and after their AmeriCorps service. Accompanying materials may include letters, testimonials, new clippings, pamphlets, etc. All materials should be photocopied to 8_"x11" format. Please submit 3 copies of any materials, such as brochures or pamphlets, that cannot be copied to 8_"x11" format. It won't be possible to return these materials, so please do not send us anything that you want returned. Please do not put the nomination cover page, statement or accompanying materials into a binder, notebook or other report cover.

The deadline for submitting nominations is August 31, 2000. Nominations may be submitted by mail, e-mail or fax (see below). Please send all entries to:
